

N^o 11

St James's 29th September 1775.

Sir,

His Majesty observed with much Pleasure in your Letter N^o 21 the Readiness with which The King of the Two Sicilies has acquiesced to His Demand, by giving Orders, that no Warlike Stores should be permitted to be sent from the Dominions of Naples and Sicily to the British Colonies in North America, and tho' the Situation of Italy is rather remote for a contraband Trade of this Nature, and which would make it more difficult for the Rebellious Colonists or their Abettors to avail Themselves of it, than from some Other Parts, yet The King esteems this Act of Prohibition as a particular Mark of Friendship and Regard from His Sicilian Majesty, which You will

Sir W^m Hamilton K^t B^t

take

take an opportunity of expressing thro' the Channel of Monsieur Tanucci, who I make no doubt, has given his friendly Aid, and facilitated this Business.

Your Letters to N^o 22 have been received and laid before The King.

I am with the greatest Truth and Regard,

Sir,

Your most Obedient humble Servant
Pockford

Earl of Northford
